Emancipation Avenue Corridor

The Opportunities:

The Emancipation Avenue Corridor lies within a City of Houston Complete Community. The Third Ward Complete Community contains a number of initiatives that will serve as a catalyst for investment on and around the Emancipation Corridor, which is the gateway to a close-in neighborhood. In addition to the involvement of quasi-governmental and governmental organizations, local foundations and nonprofit land owners are engaged in planning a number of projects for the corridor, all under the banner of Revive Emancipation!

The adopted Midtown Affordable Housing Plan addresses potential affordable housing uses for multiple tracts of land in and around the Emancipation Avenue corridor. Moreover, several nonprofit entities own land on the Emancipation Corridor on which they anticipate constructing housing and other types of development.

Opportunities for public-private partnerships are presented by the fact that there are two tax increment financing entities (TIRZ#7 and TIRZ#2) and a management district (Houston Southeast). These entities have the ability to support projects on the Emancipation Avenue Corridor.

N. Main Transit Corridor – Hardy Yards

The Assets and Opportunities:

- 36 acres of developable land, currently held by Cypress Advisors or Austin, Texas. Hardy Yards has the infrastructure already in place for a mixed-use development potential. Abutting next to the Burnett Street Station of the METRO LRT, it is the perfect location for a multi-use Transit Orientated Development.
- At a major node of North Main and Burnett Street, with new wide sidewalks along Burnett and in the Hardy Yards, shovel ready.
- Near University of Houston- Downtown and with spectacular views of Downtown.
- Already existing a soon to open 350 multi-family, mixed use development by Zieban Group

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any coincidental information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
